

“WHO’S DOING WHAT?”

Thanks to all who send us news, I enjoy reading and know others do also.

Craig Bloomer, Chevron (new member), writes, we have retired near our roots at the Univ of Michigan. Please visit when you are in the area.

Mary Cochrane, Gulf, writes, I am living happily and comfortably in a lovely retirement community.

Ray Dively, Jr., Gulf, writes, not doing much these days as MD has robbed me of my vision; can’t see anything clearly beyond 2 feet. Will be 93 in April, married 73 years come July WOW!

Francis Flynn, Texaco, writes, sad news, we lost our home of 67 years to a fire last year; starting all over. The good news is we made it out alive!!

Jack Gordon, Standard Oil of CA, writes, I retired in 1981 (before Chevron) to San Juan Island, north of Seattle. For 14 years involved in boating/yachting. Moved to Green Valley in AZ and wife involved in crafts. I played softball and golf – on a team of guys age 70 and over. I’ll be 90, end of May; lost my wife in 2011 and living alone, doing great – have daughters and sons, all near me.

Ed Haley, Texaco, writes, spending most days helping disabled neighbors with snow – grass cutting, etc.

Levy J Hardy, Chevron, writes, taking care of things that need to be done. Would like to get back on my shrimp boat and make a drag or two but have to get her running again first.

Tom Hargrave, Chevron, writes, just bought a new truck and travel trailer – me and my 3 dogs going to see Mt. Rushmore!

Michael Jackson, Chevron (new member), writes attending MS State sport events and traveling around the state working or managing rental properties. Reviewing and learning about land improvements to develop lots in a subdivision. Four grandchildren; one of our sons in Anchorage and the other in Houston.

David Jacobson, Texaco, writes, retired in 1996 from L.A. refinery as Asst. H.R. Mgr after 30years – 15 in marketing and 15 in refining. Moved back home to Montana in 1997. We love the Big Sky Country. We can view Glacier Natl Park from our front room window. Hello and best wishes to all Texaco retirees from L.A. plant.

Arthur Lauro, Chevron, writes still working as the Manager-Business Development for Sunoco.

Jack Lynch, Texaco, writes, retired in 1993 and headed to Naples shortly after and spent 13 years of total enjoyment. After our stay, we headed back to the Boston area to be closer to our 4 children and 8 grandkids. Florida was wonderful but does not replace family.

Elden Marcellino, Texaco, writes celebrate my 80th birthday. Retired June 2003, traveling and enjoying my 2 grandchildren with my wife of 59 years.

Charles Needham, Jr. Texaco new member, writes Enjoying retirement!

Bernard Neugebauer, Texaco, writes every time I read a name that I recognize in “In Memoriam” it brings back memories of those years when we were young and enjoying our years with Texaco.

Mrs. Ouita Ott, Chevron, writes thank you for all your prayers and concerns since the death of my sweetheart of almost 64 years.

Walter Prosek, Chevron, writes, I will be celebrating my 100th birthday in 2019. My upper body is good, my lower, not so much.

Robert Roxbrough, Gulf , writes I'm involved in the Madison community but much less now. Playing golf and hiking. Hello to Dan Macedo, Roger Salman and Dick Martin.

Elmo Speckels Jr., Union Oil, writes retired in 2013, my hobby is purchasing mineral and royalty interests.

Edward Wirkowski, Chevron, writes retired from Chevron refinery in NJ after 39 years then helped develop and manage an oil spill cooperative for 20+ major oil companies covering NY harbor. I then became a full-time beach bum – summers at the beachfront house in NJ and winters in Naples FL. My wonderful wife died after 50 wonderful years and I'm now under the care of my 95-year-old lady friend awaiting my next assignment.

Robert Wright, Chevron writes retired in 2002 from Huston office and moved to Albany NY where I helped develop geology curriculum of St. Rose College. Now fully retired, play golf and help raise grandchildren.
