

“WHO’S DOING WHAT?”

Ron Behrens, Chevron (ETC) new member writes: Retired September 1, found a few safe trips to outdoor destinations, but now busy getting ready to downsize and move from a large house. We hosted many a Canadian Thanksgiving work party here but now in retirement we are looking to move out of state to the greater Midwest – TBD. Have been in this house since leaving TCO in Atyrau back in 2006 so lots to cull out. First move without Chevron arranging (and paying) and finding out just how much work it is to do without corporate backing.

Robert M Burger, Chevron new member writes: Currently selling house in Houston to move closer to family in NC.

Ronald Hoff, Chevron writes: Getting ready to move to Florida later this year so we can help our younger daughter and two granddaughters.

Richard Martin, Gulf writes: I have served on the Board of Trustees, Village 4 in Whiting NJ or the past 2 years. I enjoy working and assisting my fellow retirees from all over the world. It keeps me busy during these troubled times. Hello to all my Gulf Friends.

Elizabeth O’Neill, surviving spouse of Raymond, former Texaco writes: My husband passed away in November 2019. I’m a retired elementary school librarian – we were married 54 years.

E. J. “Ned” Reilly, Gulf writes: Living here in Wilmington NC, close to family and grandchildren. Both my wife and I are still moving around and in good health.

Terry M Wallace, Getty (Tidewater Associated Oil) writes: Lost the love of my life in May last year, we were married 60 years.
